

MISLADY A. VÉLEZ, M.S.
DIRECTOR, PROFESSIONAL AFFAIRS
NOVA SOUTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF PHARMACY

As Director of Professional Affairs at the College of Pharmacy, Ms. Vélez is responsible for further promoting the college as a nationally-recognized premier leader in: innovative teaching to prepare students for leadership roles in national/international private/public businesses in the pharmaceutical industry, the professions, and home healthcare programs; the delivery of high quality, culturally sensitive pharmaceutical care and awareness education to diverse communities; and the conduct and dissemination of outcome-/culturally-based research and development.

Ms. Vélez works with the executive leadership team of the college in the development and execution of strategic marketing and development plans as well as global outreach programs targeted to diverse national and community-based businesses, health organizations, educational entities, civic organizations, as well as the general public.

Ms. Vélez has almost 30 years' experience in private and public administration; resource development; and multi-agency community-based networking in health and education. She has a Bachelor of Science in Childhood Education and a Master of Science in Adult Education and Human Resource Development from Florida International University.